Obituary for James Ramon Sr.

Sunrise

James Anderson Ramon was born on November 30, 1929 to parents Anderson Roman and Loretta Bennet in Utila, Bay Islands, Central America. On November 4, 1950, he married Trilby Coburn. Out of that loving union they were blessed with four children, Francisca, Charles, James Jr. and Sylvia. James earned a living as a farmer in Utila. He also joined a church there and gave his life to Christ.

James migrated to America where he became a seaman and a handyman and remained a Christian. Although he was quiet and reserved, his actions spoke louder than his words. He was a hardworking man who truly dedicated his life to his family and he raised his children to do the same.

Sadly, James departed this life on Monday, July 16, 2007 after a brief illness. He leaves to mourn his passing, his beloved wife of 57 years, Trilby, his four children Francisca, Charles, James Jr. and Sylvia, 8 grandkids, 3 great grandkids, 1 son-in-law, Ricardo and 2 daughters in-law; Marilyn and Beverly and a host of family and friends.

We will always love and miss James. Rest in peace.
