

UTILA THRILLAS ARE BACK!

This year's carnival was spiced up by the Utila Thrillaz' first single "Carnival de Utila". The single was very successful making it to number one in Honduras. The local trio Harry Williams, Dereck Zelaya and Marvin Escobar performed live on TV

El debut de los Utila Thrillaz dio más sabor al Carnival de Utila este año. Su canción "Carnival de Utila" fue muy exitoso y se hizo numero uno en Honduras. El trío local Harry Williams, Dereck Zelaya y Marvin Escobar hicieron interpretaciones en vivo en la tele y hicieron entrevistas con Channel 4 y TeleCeiba.

and had interviews with Channel 4 and Tele Ceiba. Now the guys are back with their third single "Hey Shorty", which came out about a week ago, recorded by Easy Records in La Ceiba. The boys are hoping that this one will be just as successful. "We want to go up to the top and travel around the world," said Dereck Zelaya aka Thrilla D.

Ahora los Thrillaz regresaron con su segunda canción "Hey Shorty" cual salio la semana pasada. Los Utila Thrillaz esperan que esta canción también tenga mucho éxito. "Queremos ir al top y viajar por todo el mundo," dijo Dereck Zelaya aka Thrilla D.

Utila's first Reggaeton group is working on an album and want to record one song a month. They write all the songs and lyrics themselves. "We make a ritmo and then we just go with the flow," said Zelaya. They will probably not release the singles but save them for their album which they are hoping to have ready for this time next year.

El primer grupo Raggaton de en Utila esta trabajando en un álbum y quiere grabar una canción cada mes. Ellos mismos escriben todas las canciones. "Hacemos un ritmo y vamos con el flow," dijo Thrilla D.

The "Hey Shorty" video was shot by Funky Fat Fish Productions at Deep Blue Resort, the new house on the point and on the water tower at Stuarts Hill. Hey Shorty will be sold as a video at Rita's Boutique, Funky Fat Fish Productions (see Dan Cain) and at Zelaya's house. In case you missed the Carnival de Utila video you can also buy a DVD with both videos.

No las van a poner en la venta pero las van a guardar para su álbum que esperan tener listos para el fin del 2006. El video de "Hey Shorty" fue filmado por Funky Fat Fish
